
We are
The Generation of Selves.
We come here
to find inner perfection, inner improvement, inner satisfaction.
Living in pursuit of the ultimate self experience,
We've learned to cherish ourselves and our potential.

Yet, this is not a selfish generation.
By bettering ourselves, we offer more to each other.
We're here together.
Our achievement is from within, but always reaching outward.
We can't deny our dependence upon each other and the social structures of which we are a part.

We need ourselves,
We definitely need each other . . .
The Generation of Selves.
